Dominica Merola will bring her new show, "The Signs of Desire," to the Queen City.

Franco-American Centre hosts singer Dominica Merola this Saturday

MANCHESTER — Seducing American cities with her new show "The Signs of Desire," Canadian singer Dominica Merola will perform at 7 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 24, at The Franco-American Centre, 52 Concord St.

The program will feature songs presented in French, Italian and English.

Merola, who last year released her debut CD in Canada, launched into her solo singing career after studying music at l'École Vincent-d'Indy in Montreal and theater at Saint Hyacinthe college in Quebec.

She has participated in many prominent musical events, including The Rideau awards in Quebec City, The Coup de coeur Francophone across Canada, and The Rencontres francophones de la chanson à Salon-de-Provence in France, as well as festivals in Toronto and in the United States.
